

Tech Days '20

VIRTUAL

21-29 November 2020

Adapting to challenging times to ensure your health and safety, the highly popular annual BELNUC Tech Day will be offered as a series of online webinars this year. In all, 2 hours of state-of-the-art lectures on hot topics in nuclear medicine will be available for free exclusively to BELNUC members from 21-29 November 2020.

The Tech Days '20 have been accredited by FANC/AFCN for 02h00 for "Gemachtigden in de Nucleaire geneeskunde/Personnes habilitées en Médecine Nucléaire".

If you haven't renewed your BELNUC membership yet, this is your last chance to secure your access to the Tech Days '20 Virtual edition!

Program

Welcome and introduction (5 min)

BELNUC Tech Board

When nuclear medicine became radiology: safely performing chest CT studies on hybrid devices during COVID19 (30 min)

dr. A. Albert (Antwerp University Hospital)

Now you see me, now you don't: variable or non-FDG avid tumors on PET/CT (30 min)

prof. dr. T. Van den Wyngaert (Antwerp University Hospital)

Technologist's challenges in managing a nuclear medicine department (30 min)

Mrs. W. Kemps (University Hospital Brussels)

Automated PET tracer dispensers: benefits and novelties (30 min)

Mr. F. Schatteman (Ghent University Hospital)

www.belnuc.be/tech-days-20-virtual

www.belnuc.be | www.facebook.com/BELNUC

Supported by:

